

May 10: The Robin Hood Foundation held its annual fund-raising gala at the Jacob K. Javits Center. The 4,000 guests, many from the finance industry, raised $87.5 million during the dinner by making pledges on electronic devices. A concert featuring Stevie Wonder followed.

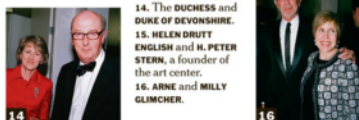

May 11: Lighthouse International held its awards dinner at the Plaza on the evening before the preview of its annual Fash Sale. 6. CAROLINA HERRERA, left, who was honored, and AMY FINE COLLINS. 7. WILLIAM IVEY LONG and LEE RADZWILL. 8. IRIS APTEL, wearing a feathered coat. 9. LISA BOWLES, in a feathered skirt.

May 13: The Legal Aid Society had an awards dinner, raising $2.1 million. 11. From left, ALAN LEVINE, the chairman of the society, with BARBARA and H. RODGIN COHEN, who were honored. 12. ARIELLE and HARVEY R. BLAU, who were also honored.

May 10: The Storm King Art Center, which is in the Hudson Valley, celebrated its 50th anniversary with a dinner at Sotheby's. 13. From left, URSULA VON RYDINGSVARD, JOHN P. STERN and CYNTHIA HAZEN POLSKY. 14. THE DUCHESS and DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE. 15. HELEN DRUIT ENGLISH and H. PETER STERN, a founder of the art center. 16. ARNE and MILLY GLIMCHER.

May 13: The Catholic Big Sisters and Big Brothers had its annual dinner and dance at the Pierre, raising $600,000. 21. From left, HENRI FERNANDEZ, ANDRE FERNANDEZ, ALEXIA FERNANDEZ and HENRY A. FERNANDEZ, who was honored.

EVENING HOURS Bill Cunningham

A Blaze Of Activity

May 11: Anne Bass and Darren Walker held a reception for Phloean Prim, the director of Cambodian Living Arts. 17. From left, DARREN WALKER, ANNE BASS; ELIZABETH JOHNSON, who founded an orphanage in Cambodia; and PHLOEAN PRIM.

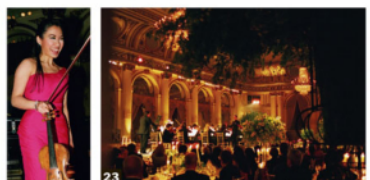

May 12: The Paper Bag Players gave an awards dinner at the Doubles Club in Manhattan. 18. ALISON HARMELIN, left, and KATY MELE. May 12: Literacy Partners celebrated its 20th anniversary with evening of readings and dinner at Lincoln Center. 19. From left, NORRIS CHURCH MAILER, SARA GRUEN, DAVID FINKE and MARY KARR, who read from their new books.

May 12: The Parkinsons Disease Foundation gave an awards dinner and dance at the Pierre, raising $600,000. 20. From left, MARGO CATSIMANIDIS, ISOBEL KONECKY and ROBIN ELLIOT.

May 13: The Catholic Big Sisters and Big Brothers had its annual dinner and dance at the Pierre, raising $600,000. 21. From left, HENRI FERNANDEZ, ANDRE FERNANDEZ, ALEXIA FERNANDEZ and HENRY A. FERNANDEZ, who was honored.

May 12: The Orchestra of St. Luke's gave an awards dinner and dance at the Plaza. The ballroom was filled with spirea branches. The evening included a concert with the violinist Sarah Chang, who was the guest artist, with the orchestra, which performed waltzes. 22. SARAH CHANG. 23. A view of the ballroom amid the spirea branches. 24. NINA and MICHAEL STANTON. 25. JONATHAN F. P. ROSE and VIRGINIA JAMES, who were honored. 26. NORMAN BENAZQUEZ and MARIANNE LOCKWOOD.

May 12: Lincoln Center's annual Real Estate and Construction Council awards dinner attracted 850 guests and raised nearly $2 million. 27. From left, MARTIN L. EDELMAN, JONATHAN L. MECHANIC, LEONARD BOXER, STEVEN SIMKIN and ROBERT J. IVANHOE, all of whom were honored. 28. HARRY and PETER MALIN, who is a chairman.

May 8: 'Bon Vivant in New York,' a photography exhibition by Kenny Kenny, took place at the Collective Gallery on Canal Street. 29. From left, KENNY KENNY, MICHELLE HARPER and SULTANA. 30. VANITY SOCIETY. 31. Pairs of shoes perfectly suited for a downtown party. 32. SEQUINETTE.

May 11: The Consul General of Germany, Dr. Horst Freitag, and Chantal Freitag hosted a concert by the Beethoven Project Trio, with rediscovered chamber works by Beethoven. The public premiere will be on May 18. 33. MARTIN ARROYO, front, with WENDY WARNER, left, GEORGE LEPAUL and SANG MEE LEE. 34. Dr. HORST FREITAG with ANNA-MARIA KELLEN.